

HOCHSCHULE KEHL
UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES

Start your future in Germany now with our Prep Course Public Management!

Studying in Germany and pursuing a career in the public sector has always been your dream? Then our Prep Course Public Management (PCPM) is the ideal starting point for you! With the PCPM and our support, you will be fully prepared for the funded Bachelor's degree in Public Management and will seamlessly adapt to your new intercultural environment.

What specific benefits does our course offer to you?

- Enhancement of your German language skills
- Intensive professional preparation led by our experienced lecturers
- Intercultural training
- Practical insights through expert lectures and excursions to administrative institutions
- Application training specifically designed for careers in the public sector

APPLY NOW!

For the Prep Course and your Bachelor's degree in Public Management in the heart of Europe.

We will support you from day one, equipping you with all the skills necessary for a successful start to your studies. There is no need to worry about moving to a new country – we'll be with you every step of the way! Upon successfully completing your degree in Public Management, you will unlock a wide range of promising career opportunities within the public sector in Baden-Württemberg.

Want to find out more?
More details on the back of the flyer.

Ready to begin your career in the German public administration?

- Are you from an EU or EEA country?
- Do you hold a university entrance qualification?
- Do you have German language skills at the B1/B2 level?
- Are you interested in a paid degree programme in Public Management in Baden-Württemberg?

Then our Prep Course is just right for you!

Apply now for the Prep Course and begin your studies in Public Management at a university situated at the crossroads of European integration – right on the border with France and just minutes from the European capital, Strasbourg. You can look forward to an exciting combination of interdisciplinary theory and practical experience – plus, you will receive personalised support from the administrations you work with.

Your roadmap to success:

- From autumn 2024: Optional online German language preparation to reach level B2
- January to June 2025: Prep Course Public Management (on-site in Kehl from March onwards)
- From autumn 2025: Transition to a practice-oriented and remunerated degree programme with excellent career prospects in the public sector

Accompanying programme & support:

- Financial assistance through a DAAD scholarship
- German+ mentorship programme for language and professional development
- Individual support with application procedures and placement in study-related internships

Are you ready for a meaningful and secure career in Germany?
Then apply now and get started!

For more information visit: www.hs-kehl.de/en-prepcourse

